

El Día de los Niños Celebrating Young Americans Resolution

Whereas Latino children are the center of the Latino family, and

Whereas Latino families should have an established day to acknowledge the contribution and value of their children, and

Whereas the strengths of the Latino culture can be preserved and passed down to future generations, and

Whereas Latino families, communities and the generations that follow are committed to providing a safe environment for Latino children to know love, grow, learn, excel and be happy, and

Whereas the National Latino Children's Institute, serving as a voice for Latino children, has designated April 30 as El Día de los Niños as a day to bring together Latinos and other communities nationwide to celebrate and uplift Latino children and ensure they are first in our lives and have a bright future,

Therefore let it be resolved that we will join with Latino children, parents, individuals, families, organizations, communities, cities and states across the nation to share the establishment of a nationally recognized and celebrated El Día de los Niños Celebrating Young Americans in the United States of America, beginning April 30, 1998, and to be celebrated by all generations that follow.

We resolve today _____, 19____ to celebrate now and forever El Día de los Niños Celebrating Young Americans and by adding our name _____ (school or organization) to the national network we commit to taking whatever actions are necessary to make this day a special day in the lives of young Americans.

Let it be resolved that the undersigned, representing the community of young people in San Antonio, ask the San Antonio City Council to declare El Día de los Niños Celebrating Young Americans in perpetuity.

Let it also be resolved that the City of San Antonio, including its schools, businesses, and families will come together each year on April 30 to celebrate El Día de los Niños Celebrating Young Americans.
